

ABOUT US

OUR MISSION

The International Biblical Apologetics Association (IBAA) is committed to defending the Gospel of Messiah Yeshua (Jesus Christ), witnessing to those deceived by false teachings and cults, and empowering believers through discipleship and apologetics for the glory of God.

OUR VISION

Our goal is to train a new generation of faithful leaders in biblical apologetics, reinforce the foundations of biblical faith, and build intentional, disciple-making communities (1 Peter 3:15; 2 Timothy 2:2).

OUR PURPOSE

1. To teach God's Word in its ancient Hebraic context.
2. To disseminate biblical doctrine regarding Israel and God's plan of salvation.
3. To guard against antisemitism within the church.
4. To equip believers with knowledge and tools for practical biblical apologetics.
5. To provide spiritual recovery resources for survivors of pseudo-Christian cults.

For more information on the IBAA's milestones, projects, and latest updates, visit our website at www.bibleapologist.org.

CONTACT US

Here are a few ways you can be a part of the IBAA's mission:

1. Support the ministry financially:
www.bibleapologist.org/donate.
2. Join the ministry team:
www.bibleapologist.org/stand-with-us.
3. Subscribe to our free newsletter on the website.
4. Subscribe to the International Biblical Apologetics Association YouTube channel.
5. Join the ministry group on WhatsApp:
+1 773-754-6482.

We would love to hear from you!

info@bibleapologist.org
+1 773-754-6482

"Let's work together to reach a greater number of people and achieve more than we ever have before!"

With Christ's love,

Dr. Igal German
IBAA Founder and CEO

International
Biblical Apologetics Association

ARE ANGELS REAL?

THE ANSWER
MAY CHANGE YOUR LIFE

Angelic appearances to humans are recorded throughout the Bible. The biblical writers believed angels were real.

Biblical Accounts of Angels

Messenger Angels

God created angels, who served as heavenly messengers to humans (Job 38:7; Colossians 1:16; Hebrews 1:14). In Hebrew and Greek, “angel” means “messenger.” Two angels in human form rescued Lot and his family (Genesis 19:1–22). God’s angel protected the Israelites as they fled Egypt (Exodus 14:19). The angel Gabriel informed the Virgin Mary that she would give birth to Jesus Christ (Luke 1:26–38). God’s angels appeared to the shepherds at Jesus’ birth (Luke 2:8–15) and the disciples at His tomb (John 20:12).

Angels of War

“Fear not,” Elisha told his servant when a Syrian army surrounded the city of Dothan. He further explained, “Those who are with us are more than those who are with them.” Then Elisha prayed and asked the Lord to open his servant’s eyes. In response, the Lord caused the young man to be able to see that “the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha,” an angelic army surrounding them (2 Kings 6:16–17, TLV).

Angels of Destruction

“He sent on them the fury of His anger—wrath and indignation and trouble—a band of evil angels” (Psalm 78:49).

Guardian Angels

“For He will give His angels charge over you, to guard you in all your ways. Upon their hands they will lift you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone” (Psalm 91:11, 12).

Does It Matter Whether or Not Angels Are Real?

God’s angelic messengers heralded hope and salvation and relayed divine warnings. Our hope is in Jesus Christ, Who affirmed the existence of angels. We can’t believe God’s promises and disbelieve the existence of His angelic messengers who spoke to prophets and apostles on His behalf (e.g., Jacob, Daniel, Isaiah, John, Peter, and Paul). So, yes, it does matter that angels are real (Hebrews 13:2).

To find out more about the supernatural realm, visit our website bibleapologist.org.